

Hillsborough County

Coordinator Tourism Industry Analysis

Job Overview:

This position performs highly responsible, independent professional and analytical duties related to a proactive and holistic effort to competitively position Hillsborough County within the tourism, sports and convention industries but also to support all aspects of the BOCC economic development strategy across industries. Duties include data gathering, economic analysis, mapping and research to support the development and administration of partner relationships and program fulfillment are aimed at fueling job growth and private capital investment. The principal duties of the position include coordinating and implementing projects or programs that support the visitor based industries, coordination with industry partners, management of outside consultants, data analysis, program compliance, analysis and presentation of economic development data, and staff support to the Tourist Development Council.

Minimum Qualifications:

Bachelor's Degree in planning, engineering, economic development, economics, business administration, public administration, research or a related field that provides knowledge and technics necessary for research activities and data analysis and

3 years to <5 years in Data and Market Research, Planning, Development, Economic Development Engineering Real Estate or a related field.

Link to county posting page:

<https://jobapscloud.com/Hillsborough/jobs/cad/details.asp?R1=1907&R2=CRDTIAUNP5&R3=001>